Council Connection

Recent Council Actions from October 21 Meeting

- Adopted a resolution in support of the renewal of the $11.5 million operating levy for the Mounds View District, which will appear on the Tuesday, November 5 ballot.
- Authorized a professional service agreement with SEH, Inc. for the completion of a Railroad Quiet Zone and Operations Study in the amount of $12,000. The study will provide the City with the information needed regarding the quiet zone process and rail operations in the community. This information will assist the Council and staff in determining what actions are needed to address the concerns that residents have raised regarding rail operations.
